

CARIBOO QUARTERLY

Get Outside!

Now that we have nearly put the COVID-19 crisis behind us, the theme of this issue of the Carribo Quarterly is GET OUTSIDE!

.....

Did You Know?

We are back in full swing for all of our services! The only difference is that you may see us in masks, and we are using a different cleaning solution that is not completely "green" as we normally use. Call us today for all of your cleaning and senior services: 250.649.8783

What Have We Learned?

WRITTEN BY WENDIE HOLBROOK, OWNER OF VIRTUALLY YOURS

If you were to sit and reflect on the last 6 months, what have we learned? Do you remember in March when everyone was completely crazy about stocking up on toilet paper supplies? People were lined up outside of Costco waiting for them to open and racing to the back of the store in the hopes of grabbing a package of that precious commodity, most often leaving the store empty-handed. Even more ridiculous were the scenes of people jumping into semi-trucks as they were arriving to unload stock at the grocery stores.

Fears arose as we watched places like Italy and certain states in the US where people could not leave their homes for extended periods of time. Would this happen to us as well? Reports arose suggesting that we could be placed on lockdown for two or more weeks, and not allowed to leave our homes at all. The shelves in the grocery stores became depleted. Foods were rationed. People stockpiled. News stories broke out showing people fighting over groceries, and yes, even toilet paper. If all of this happened because of a virus which 98.00% people have recovered from, and from the fears, the media has placed on the majority of the people, what should we expect should there be a "second wave" as they are predicting this fall?
